

Isle of Man Captive Association to attend Captive Live UK event

Captive Live UK is a new event bringing together numerous key professionals from the Captive Insurance industry. Ranging from Captive Owners, Brokers, Captive Managers and CFO's, all are attending to network, share best practice, hear technical experts and learn about industry developments.

There is an exhibition area at the heart of the event, where companies will be showcasing their products and services. Plus, there is also a high calibre conference programme not usually associated with a free event, this is supported by bespoke break out steams focusing on the different disciplines.

Date: Over two days on the 22nd February and 23rd February

Venue: Vinopolis, London

Event Highlights

Solvency II: Threat to self insurers?

Will S II destroy captives?

Do you need insurance?

Moderator: Dominic Wheatley, chairman, GICMA

Sarah Goddard, CEO, DIMA

Jonathan Groves, Marsh

Employee Benefits

- Good use of captives

- Management of funds involved

- US approaches, and understanding the European perspective

Moderator: Hugh Rosenbaum, retired principal,

Towers Perrin- Tillinghast

Mark Cook, Towers Watson

Bill Fitzpatrick, vice president of Corporate Risk Benefits, DHL

Regulatory Panel

Updates on regulatory issues across local domiciles

Moderator: Alan Fleming, vice president, AIRMIC

David Vick, chief executive, Insurance and Pensions Authority, IoM

John Dunford, deputy director of insurance-Supervision, GFSC

The Captive Association will be well represented at the event and the Isle of Man's presence will be further bolstered by the attendance of the Isle of Man Regulator, David Vick, the Chief Executive of the Isle of Man Pensions Authority, as well as representatives from Isle of Man Finance. If you are attending the event, please stop by the Isle of Man Captive booth. If you would like to find out more, please contact Jim Hardie at bqh@manx.net